Our Winter Warehouse Sale

@ Harvard Book Store Warehouse
 14 Park Street, Somerville

We're opening the doors for our hugely popular semiannual warehouse sale once again! This year we'll have extended hours, kicking the weekend off on Friday afternoon.

Come explore thousands of remainders at 15% off—fiction, cookbooks, children's books, comics, art, history, science—plus rare and unusual used books for 70% off.

Friday, Dec. 1 / 7:00<sup>pm</sup>

Daniel Horowitz

Happier?:

The History of a Cultural Movement That Aspired to Transform America

@ Harvard Book Store

Writer, historian, and Smith College professor Daniel Horowitz discusses the emergence of positive psychology and how it infused American culture with promises for a happier society. This event is co-sponsored by Mass Humanities.

"Informative and compelling. . . Horowitz provides a thorough and thoughtful introduction to an influential discipline." —Publishers Weekly

Monday, Dec. 4 / 6:30<sup>pm</sup>

David Ferry

The Aeneid

in conversation with
 ROBERT PINSKY

@ Cambridge Public Library
 449 Broadway

National Book Award-winning poet and translator David Ferry discusses his translation of Virgil's Aeneid with award-winning poet and former Poet Laureate Robert Pinsky. This event is co-sponsored by Mass Humanities.

"Ferry's delighted attention, and confidence as a poet to take expansive liberty while keeping the diction pure, makes this new translation such a marvel throughout" —The New York Review of Books

Tuesday, Dec. 5 / 7:00<sup>pm</sup>

The Harvard Square Book Circle

discusses Gold Fame Citrus: A Novel

@ Harvard Book Store

The Harvard Square Book Circle, our in-store book club, discusses Claire Vaye Watkins' acclaimed novel Gold Fame Citrus.

Wed., Dec. 6 / 7:00<sup>pm</sup>

Carmen Maria Machado

Her Body and Other Parties: Stories

in conversation with KELLY LINK

@ Harvard Book Store

Author, essayist, and critic Carmen Maria Machado discusses her debut short story collection, Her Body and Other Parties, with award-winning author and editor Kelly Link.

"[These stories] vibrate with originality, queerness, sensuality and the strange." —Roxane Gay

Thursday, Dec. 7 / 7:00<sup>pm</sup>

Kevin Young

Bunk:

The Rise of Hoaxes, Humbug, Plagiarists, Phonies, Post-Facts, and Fake News

@ Harvard Book Store

Award-winning poet and critic Kevin Young discusses Bunk, a history of the hoax as a distinct American phenomenon, longlisted for the National Book Award for Nonfiction.

"There Kevin Young goes again, giving us books we greatly need, cleverly disguised as books we merely want. Unexpectedly essential." —Marlon James

Monday, Dec. 11 / 6:00<sup>pm</sup>

Tina Brown

The Vanity Fair Diaries: 1983–1992

$5.00 Tickets

@ the Brattle Theatre
 40 Brattle Street

Award-winning journalist, editor, and author Tina Brown discusses her eight years as editor-in-chief of Vanity Fair, including the inside stories of scoops and covers that sold millions.

"[Her] energy & imagination turned to making the world better has galvanized so many of us now. A cultural catalyst—she makes things happen. Thank god she wrote it all down. Hang on. A wild ride." —Meryl Streep

Monday, Dec. 11 / 7:00<sup>pm</sup>

Joanne Chang

Myers+Chang at Home: Recipes from the Beloved Boston Eatery

@ Harvard Book Store

Celebrated local chef and author Joanne Chang discusses the first cookbook from her acclaimed Boston restaurant, Myers+Chang at Home.

"This is just full of things I want to cook and eat more of. It's also written in a tone I love, one that combines the precision of a consummate professional with a slightly anarchic twinkle. This is the way to have fun in the kitchen." —Yotam Ottolenghi

Harvard Book Store Gives Back

Sunday, November 26
Sunday, December 3
Sunday, December 10
Sunday, December 17

Shop with us on any of the four Sundays after Thanksgiving at Harvard Book Store or on harvard.com; a portion of every purchase will go to support important local organizations. Your purchases will help support 826 Boston, Community Cooks, and On The Rise.

The Gives Back program is a way for Harvard Book Store to contribute to local nonprofits during the holidays. On four consecutive Sundays a percentage of in-store and online sales will go to our selected charitable organizations.

826 Boston is a nonprofit organization dedicated to supporting students ages 6-18 with their creative and expository writing skills, and to helping teachers inspire their students to write. Learn more about 826 Boston at 826boston.org.

Community Cooks mobilizes individuals, businesses, civic, educational, and faith-based groups to prepare home-cooked food for vulnerable populations seeking assistance from human service agencies in the Greater Boston area. Learn more about Community Cooks at communitycooks.org.

On The Rise creates a community where women have the relationships, safety, and resources they need to move out of homelessness, engaging with those most in need to support their initiative and strength as they move beyond crisis. Learn more about On The Rise at ontherise.org.
