

Signed
1ST EDITION CLUB

Welcome to the Club!

A generous booklover has given you the gift of a six-month subscription to Harvard Book Store's limited-capacity Signed First Edition Club. We applaud your friend's taste! Many signed first editions appreciate in value and are an asset to any library.

Each month for the duration of your subscription, you'll receive a first-edition publication of a premium work of fiction or nonfiction signed by the author, selected from among the abundance of acclaimed writers who appear in our award-winning author event series all year long.

You'll receive your first signed book next month. If you have any questions or comments concerning your gift subscription, drop us a note at signedfirst@harvard.com. Please note that answers to frequently asked questions about the Signed First Edition Club are available online at harvard.com.

Yours truly,

Harvard Book Store
